

Three Cheers for Carbondale and the D&H

On Sunday, February 15, at 7 P.M., Dr. S. Robert Powell, president of the Carbondale Historical Society, will be the guest author on PA Books on the Pennsylvania Cable Network (PCN) to talk about the first five volumes of his history of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company's Gravity Railroad that were published on DVDs on October 9, 2014.

If you can't access PCN on your local cable system, or if you live outside of Pennsylvania, this broadcast will be posted as a podcast on the PCN website (www.pcntv.com) for one week, beginning February 16.

PA Books is PCN's weekly program focusing on books about Pennsylvania topics. Past guests have included Mark Bowden, Cokie Roberts, and James McCullough. The host for the program, Brian Lockman, is the president and CEO of PCN.

The Pennsylvania Cable Network is a private, non-profit cable television network, a C-SPAN for Pennsylvania, seen on more than 145 cable systems serving 3 million cable homes in Pennsylvania.
